

Homepage ENG

Alpha Immobiliare Fund is the first contribution fund to have been placed in Italy

It was created in 2001 with the contribution of 26 INPDAP properties - mainly destined for the tertiary sector - located in Bologna, Milan and Rome.

Alpha is also the first example of divestiture of public assets through a real estate fund and its market success has prompted further sales of public property.

On the Stock Exchange
